

ARCHIVES MUSEUM

Purpose

Our mission is to collect, preserve, store, and catalog the ever expanding array of materials that relate to the life, ministry, and history of the Churches of God, General Conference.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Organization

The Historical Society is an auxiliary organization of the Churches of God, General Conference. It is responsible for the administration and operation of the Archives Museum.

ARCHIVES MUSEUM

Collections

The collections consist of church publications, visual displays, missionary, and church artifacts, historical books, and bibles. The Archives Room has regional journals, church records, and leadership information for research.

Rare Books

A collection of Winebrenner Theological Seminary books and significant contributions preserving CGGC history

Archives

Centuries old regional church records and leadership documents preserving our CGGC heritage and history

Artifacts

A collection of cultural and historical objects dating from the early 1800's
